Reminder: Meeting at Bar Hill School July 4th - Present and future parents of Swavesey Village College pupils.

Monday 9th July 2.30

Church Centre

All over 60 are invited to discuss existing and future facilities for people of this age group in the village.

Wednesday Coffee Bar.

The growing need for a place to meet other than homes, has in part been met by opening the Church Centre as a coffee bar on Wednesday mornings (10.30 - 12 noon). If this proves to meet a real need we will open in the Autumn, in addition, during one afternoon and one evening per week. The first morning raised £2.00 for Save the Children Fund. Future profits will go to the Church Centre Building Fund.

Come and meet your friends - Sample home baked Cakes!

Family Trek

Sunday 8th July.

Sponsored hike to Lolworth, Boxworth and Knapwell to raise money for Church Centre and to ensure that these footpaths are kept open by walking.

We leave the Church Centre at 2.30 - 3. p.m. Sponsor forms from 19, Acorn Avenue or 40, Partridge Drive.

8 o'clock Club

On Thursday 5th July, Miss Halter, Principal Nursing Officer, Addenbrooke's Hospital will be coming to our meeting, and on Thursday 19th July we will be holding a Wine and Cheese Party.

We are a very informal Club for Ladies of all ages and we meet at 8 o'clock in the School, so anyone interested is very welcome to attend.

There will be no meetings in August.

Newcomers.

Our meeting on the 12th July will be a Social afternoon with a report on the Year's Progress, at 2.00 p.m. in the Church Centre, all very welcome. On the 17th July, we have a Coffee Morning at 52, Oatlands Avenue (up the hill) in aid of funds for toys for our Creche, 10.00 a.m. Raffle, Nearly New Stall, etc. On the 21st July our Group will be running a Cake Stall at the Summer Fair in the Church Centre, cakes and helpers wanted, please look out for more details.

Urgently Wanted

We now urgently need helpers at Brownies and Guides. We have a long waiting list for both organisations and if we do not get more help we will have an even longer list. If anyone is interested :- for Brownies please contact Mrs. M. Harbottle, 32, Partridge Drive. Crafts Hill 80232. For Guides - Mrs. Wilkins, 6, Almond Grove. Crafts Hill 80301.

Apology.

We are very sorry indeed that some residents have been disturbed recently by our burglar alarm at Cambridge Consultants.

The faults in the system have been traced, and our Contractors are rectifying them. We would like to thank those who told the police that the alarm was sounding, and hope that there will be no more disturbances, false or real. Rodney Dale.

Parish Council Report

Garden Rubbish etc. - the Council is seeking the provision of a site where tipping and disposal can be controlled.

Planning Applications - the Council offered no objection to applications by Mr. Shepherd of 21, Almond Grove to extend his dining room and kitchen, by Cambridge Consultants for extensions to their workshop and car park, and by Messrs. Rodbard-Haggar for the erection of a shop front, unit 9 the Mall. It recorded its strongest objections to the renewal of planning consent given in 1968 for the erection of 20 flag poles each 22ft. high along the entrance road.

Play Group - the Council agreed to donate £25 towards the purchase of a climbing frame.

Elections - Parish Council, Mr. M. Pettit of 52, Oatlands Avenue, and Mr. I. Chamberlain of 2, Foxhollow were elected.

District Council, Ward 5, Oakington and Bar Hill, Mr. C. Lakin of 22, Almond Grove was elected.

The next Parish Council Meeting will be held on Tuesday 3rd July in the school lounge at 8 p.m.

A. Parrott, Clerk.

Ivan Chamberlain would like to thank those who supported him in the recent Parish Council Election and if there is any way in which he can be of assistance, please call at 2, Foxhollow.

Horticultural Society.

As part of the Summer Fair, we are holding our Flower Show at the Church Centre on 21st July from 2.30 onwards. Our standards are not as high as for the Chelsea Flower Show, as it's only our second attempt, so why not risk an entry. Entries are 2½p. and prizes, depending on the number and standard of entries will be given in all classes which are as follows:-

- a). Three hybrid tea roses. (b) Three flowers of one species.
- c) Five mixed flowers. (d) Lettuce with root. (e) Soft fruit.
- f) House plant owned for at least six months. (g) childrens wild flower arrangement. The winners of the Garden competition will be announced. We shall be selling professionally grown house plants at reasonable prices.

The Trading Sec. is now ordering spring bulbs, so remember that when you need bulbs they will be available in the autumn. If there is anything particular you want in the line please contact J. Neill, 80205, 1, Oatlands

Exhibition

A model of the glass screen in the church centre will be in an exhibition at the Royal Institute of British Architects, 66, Portland Place, W.1. from July 23rd, 1973. The exhibition is of decorative glass and is promoted by the British Society of Master Glass Painters.

From the Secretary's Notepad.

Village Summer Fair.

If your club or organisation is planning to have a stall at the fair please send a representative along to a stall holders meeting on Monday 9th July 8.30 p.m. in the Church.

We will be holding a Dance on Saturday 21st July at 8 p.m. in the Church Centre. Bar open until 11.30 p.m. Proceeds in aid of playground equipment. Tickets - 50p. Available from committee members and the information centre.

My thanks to all who have helped to produce this edition of the newsletter. Come back John Wills, all is forgiven!
